

APPLICATION FOR GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP

in the Department of Psychology and Counseling Florham Campus

Graduate assistantships in the Department of Psychology and Counseling at the Florham Campus, Fairleigh Dickinson University are available on an annual basis. They are an excellent means of graduate students receiving financial support while they gain experience in working with psychology and counseling faculty members. As a graduate assistant, you will work with faculty to assist them with their classes, research, and special projects. The assistantship extends for the academic year from one week prior to the fall semester to one week after final exams of the spring semester. They require a 15 hour per week commitment. Students must work a minimum of 2 days per week and be available mainly during daytime hours. Graduate assistants must be full time graduate students (register for and complete a minimum of 9 credits per semester). Graduate assistantships provide 6 credits worth of tuition remission per semester and $500 per semester.
