This five-class course is designed to enlighten and inspire both the wine novice and wine enthusiast by learning in an interactive environment. Six memorable wines will be tasted in each class with cheeses served to accompany the wines. Each two-hour wine-tasting class will focus on:

• A major wine-producing region, exploring what makes it unique
• What grape varietals and wines are most memorable from each region
• How to read and understand wine labels from each region
• What foods pair best with the wines from that region
• Key basics such as how to evaluate and taste wine
• How to identify and describe the different styles of wines from each region
• Giving the student confidence in purchasing the wines from each region in a wine shop or restaurant

Each student will receive a packet of reference materials from each class.

Cost
$425 per person; all major credit cards accepted

To Register and For Information
Call 201-692-6500

Fridays, September 12, 19 and 26; October 10 and 24, 7–9 p.m.
The Westin Governor Morristown, 2 Whippany Road, Morristown, N.J.

September 12  New World Gems: California, Oregon, Washington
September 19  Super Southern Hemisphere: Argentina, Chile, Australia, New Zealand
September 26  The Old World Standard: France (Loire, Burgundy, Bordeaux, Rhone)
October 10  Exploring the Greatness of Riesling: Germany
October 24  Old World Superstars: Italy, Spain

About the Professor
George Staikos, a 25-year veteran of the hospitality industry, is known for his role as an educator, sharing his passion for wine appreciation and knowledge. He is the founder and president of The Educated Grape, a company specializing in interactive wine-education programs, seminars and events for wine enthusiasts and companies. He is an adjunct professor at Fairleigh Dickinson University’s International School of Hospitality and Tourism Management, where he teaches the course Introduction to the Study of Wine.