Fairleigh Dickinson University Welcomes Veterans

FDU has been educating America's veterans since 1946, offering academic programs that fit your life whatever your age, your branch of service, your duty status, or your previous college experience. FDU's Office of Veterans Services provides the support you need to simplify your GI Bill benefits and get started on your academic path. That's why more veterans choose FDU than any other independent college in New Jersey.

"As a sergeant in the U.S. Army, I was honored to serve my nation. Now, as a college president, I am even more honored to help serve veterans by providing educational programs that can transform their lives."

- FDU President, J. Michael Adams

Three Ways to Go

► On-Line ► On-Site ► On-Campus

No matter where you live in the state, chances are that FDU offers courses and programs close to you. Our two northern New Jersey campuses, in Madison and Teaneck, provide the widest range of academic programs and study options.

FDU also offers courses, select degree completion programs, and select graduate programs on-site in dozens of New Jersey locations, including schools, police academies, medical centers, National Guard armories, and community college campuses in Atlantic Cape May County, Burlington County, Cumberland County, Gloucester County, Mercer County, Ocean County, Somerset County, and Warren County.

Pursue an Associate's or Bachelor's degree, or either of two Master's degrees, in fully online classes that do not require any time on campus. FDU online students include active duty military in the Middle East and National Guard soldiers around the world.

Cost & Affordability

Never before has an education at FDU been so affordable to veterans either to expand on their previous education or prepare for a new career. The Post-9/11 GI Bill took effect August 1, 2009 and offers unparalleled opportunities to achieve your goals for higher education. Plus, virtually every honorably discharged U.S. military veteran has already accrued credits toward a degree or certification. Your decision to attend a premier, private university, such as FDU, is now a reality.

Yellow Ribbon Program

Students who are eligible for the Yellow Ribbon Program (i.e., veterans with 36 months or more of cumulative active-duty service or discharged with a disability after 30 days of active-duty service or eligible dependents) can have all tuition and fees covered by their benefits and an FDU Yellow Ribbon Grant. FDU is proud to make this offer for all of our undergraduate and graduate programs, whether they are on campus, on-site or online.

Partial VA Educational Benefits

Students who are not eligible for the Yellow Ribbon Program (i.e., veterans with less than 36 months of cumulative active-duty service) may still receive:

- » Partial VA educational benefits tied to your length of service
- » Need-based federal, state, and institutional financial aid determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Assistance (FAFSA)
- » Merit scholarships based on prior academic record

Academic Excellence

The largest private university in New Jersey, Fairleigh Dickinson University offers over 120 outstanding undergraduate and graduate programs and dozens of professional certificates, including:

These programs are offered both on-line and on-site for convenience of students. Tuition and fees for the programs may be covered by the GI Bill benefit and the Army National Guard Federal Tuition and Assistance Program (FTA).
