On Tuesday evening, April 20, as part of the Sands of Time program, we are proud and honored to present to you Ambassador Ghassan Muhsin, a career diplomat and artist extraordinaire.

Born in Nassiriyah, Iraq, Ambassador Muhsin has traveled the world, has engaged in a lifelong process of learning about other peoples and cultures, and is the epitome of a global citizen. He served in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, most recently as Iraq's Ambassador to the Kingdom of Bahrain before retiring in 2009. He currently resides in Bahrain and will visit the United States this month.

He now dedicates himself to his true love, art. Please click on the link below to see his magnificent works - and to learn more about the man.

We are indeed fortunate to have him as our guest and to hear his thoughts on his life, his work, and, as he expressed to me, how his art affected his diplomacy.

The program will be held in the Rutherford Room and will begin promptly at 8:15 PM.
