TEXTBOOK:

Ethics and the Conduct of Business, 5th edition, by John Boatright, Publisher: Prentice Hall

ADDITIONAL READING MATERIALS:

From time to time, I will assign extra reading materials which might be from other textbooks, magazines, newspapers or websites. You will be given advance warning of at least a week before these readings are due in class.

Grading Items:

Learning Log* 10%
Case studies, class participation and attendance 25%
Mid-term exam 20%
Field Trip Paper 10%
Group Presentation 15%
Final exam 20%

* A Learning Log is a written record that includes what you have learned from each class; it is also a way for you to communicate with me. There is a form in Microsoft Word format for recording your Learning Logs on Webcampus for this course under “Course Documents”. A more detailed explanation of how we will use learning logs is given on Webcampus.

 Some class sessions will require that you prepare a written analysis of one or more case studies taken from your textbook or other sources. We will also discuss these cases in class. Excuses for non-attendance or late assignments must be accompanied by a physician’s written medical excuse. Expect your grade to be affected if you miss more than two classes with unexcused absences. There is no make-up for missed case study assignments. All written material except exams must be submitted through Webcampus.

Group Presentations: Students, in groups of 3, will be expected to make a 15-20 minute presentation about a contemporary ethical issue in business. The presentation should explain the issue(s) at hand, the parties that are affected, the degree of responsibility and possible solutions. Discuss your topic of interest with the instructor before you begin work on it.

All grading items must be completed in order to receive a grade in the course.

The mid-term and final exams will consist of short-answer-essay, fill-in-the-blank, multiple-choice or true/false questions. There will be no make-up exams unless you contact me before the assigned examination dates. If English is not your native language, you may use a paper translation dictionary during the exams. Electronic dictionaries or other such aids are not permitted.

OPPORTUNITIES TO ENCOURAGE STUDENT LEARNING:

Extra credit: You may bring an article to each class session for discussion. Be prepared to state the key ethical issue of the article in 25 words or less. You must turn in a copy of the article and your brief description for credit. Suggested sources are the Wall Street Journal, the New York Times, The Economist and Business Week.

No makeup exams will be given.

FINAL GRADES WILL BE DETERMINED BY THE FOLLOWING
A + = 95 – 100 = 4.00
A = 90 – 94 = 4.00
A- = 87 – 89 = 3.67
B+ = 84 – 86 = 3.33
B = 80 – 83 = 3.00
B- = 77 – 79 = 2.67
C+ = 74 – 76 = 2.33
C = 71 – 73 = 2.00
C- = 68 – 70 = 1.67
D = 61 – 67 = 1.00
F = 0 – 60 = 0.00

Incomplete (I) can be awarded in special cases. University policy must be followed.

WITHDRAWALS

In the event you choose to withdraw from our course, the burden of following through with the withdrawal process is your responsibility. You may or may not be dropped for excessive absences. However, failure to attend does not guarantee being dropped. Please understand that if you do not officially withdraw before the end of the 9th week of the semester (March 7, 2008), you must be assigned a grade based upon what you have earned. This may be anything from A (unlikely) to F. Please refer to the College Catalogue for more detail. If you believe you MUST withdraw, for any reason, PLEASE consult with me first! Perhaps we can find a way to help you complete our course successfully.
