Copies Plus is pleased to announce that it has added a digital letterhead and envelope printer to its equipment list. We now can print letterhead (that can be imprinted through your printer or copier) as well as envelopes in any size (including announcements and windows) in-house at a significant savings with quick turnaround. You also will be able to print small quantities, imprint messages on envelopes for special mailings as well as print Post Office Intelligent mail barcodes. Using your database, envelopes can be printed and addressed in one operation. Talk to Rich, Craig or Rob about how we can help you with envelope and letterhead needs today!
