FALL COURSE

Mgmt 2828: Field Study of Business, Culture & Global Sustainability

Travel to Costa Rica
January 7-21, 2007

and attend 5 one-hour class meetings during the fall semester

3 credit hours

You will study:

- Banana, Coffee & Pineapple Industries
- Sustainable Tourism
- Cultural Differences

Locations/Activities:

- INCAE, EARTH, and PEACE Universities
- Businesses and Cultural Attractions
- Live in the Gandoca-Manzanillo Wildlife Refuge

Cost

$1,950—including airfare, lodging, all breakfasts, educational programs, excursion fees and more. (Price is subject to change e.g., if airfare is more than $500.)

NOTE: If you are taking 15 credits or less in fall ’06, there will be no additional tuition to take this course.

Language

All classes and educational programs will be in English.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Contact Rose (973 443-8817) or Dan Twomey (973 443-8802) or e-mail Dan at dtwomey@fdu.edu