Gorik Ooms is a human rights lawyer, graduated from the Catholic University of Leuven in 1989.

During most of his professional career, Gorik worked with Médecins Sans Frontières (Doctors Without Borders) Belgium, of which he became executive director in 2004.

In March 2008, Gorik Ooms obtained a PhD in Medical Sciences from the University of Ghent, for a thesis on the subject, “The right to health and the sustainability of healthcare: Why a new global health aid paradigm is needed.” In August 2008, he joined the Department of Public Health at the Institute of Tropical Medicine, Antwerp.

Gorik was appointed as Global Justice Fellow at the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies at Yale University, for the 2009-2010 academic year.

The Office of Global Learning is pleased to present a special lecture

by

Dr. Gorik Ooms
Fulbright Scholar

Two Approaches to Healthcare Sustainability: National and Global

Wednesday, March 31, 2010
10:30 – 12:00 pm
Multipurpose Room, Student Union Building
Metropolitan Campus

Seating is limited. Please RSVP to Diana Cvitan, Office of Global Learning at 201-692-7161 or dcvitan@fdu.edu

 COLLEGE AT FLORHAM STUDENTS: Transportation will be available from the CAF Campus if enough students register to attend. Please contact Diana Cvitan no later than Wednesday, March 24, and indicate that you would need transportation.