School Administrators
Computer, Technology, Science, Social Studies, Geography, History Teachers

FDU is hosting GITA's Information Session:
Geographic Information Systems (GIS) for Educators
Metropolitan Campus in Bergen County
Dickinson Hall, Hackensack, NJ
Suite 1134, Room 1127
Thursday, June 3, 2010
Light Refreshments served 4:30 p.m.
Presentation 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Topics
- What is Geographic Information Systems (GIS)?
- How GIS can be integrated to Education?
- GIS Curriculum Overview and sample training or course study
- Introducing GIS to K-12 schools in Maryland
- Student Careers, internships, College Preparation

Speakers
Samantha Bulkilvish, GIS Educator in youth technology, Washington College, Maryland
BA in Environmental Studies with GIS training

Chuck Benton, Technology Teacher, Dover Area High School, Pennsylvania
BA in Technology Education and Master of Education in Developmental Strategies

RSVP: 201-692-6500 by June 1, 2010
joan_leder@fdu.edu