DEMOGRAPHICS

Founded
1942; Coed, private, independent

Accreditation
Fairleigh Dickinson is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education and licensed by the state of New Jersey Commission on Higher Education. FDU’s Silberman College of Business holds prestigious accreditation from AACSB, and FDU’s engineering programs are ABET-accredited.

Campuses
• Metropolitan Campus located in Teaneck, NJ (less than 10 km west of Manhattan, New York City).
• College at Florham located in Madison, NJ (one hour from New York City).
• FDU-Vancouver located in downtown Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada offers the Master of Administrative Science (M.A.S.) program only.
• Wroxton College in Oxfordshire, England (for study abroad).

Enrollment
New Jersey’s largest private university with 9,199 undergraduate students and 3,048 graduate students. Student-faculty ratio is 12:1; average class size is 14-18 students. International students from 85 countries make up over 10 percent of the student population, ranking FDU as one of the top 15 most popular master’s-level institutions for international students (IE Open Doors Report).

ACADEMICS AND STUDENT LIFE

Degrees Offered
Doctoral, master’s, baccalaureate and associate degrees; over 100 majors, minors and concentrations available. Popular majors include: the M.B.A. with specializations in accounting, management, finance, international business and pharmaceutical management; electrical engineering; computer engineering; computer science; M.I.S.; electronic commerce; cosmetic science; pharmaceutical chemistry; TESL/TEFL; hospitality management; media and professional communication.

UN Connection
FDU is one of only a handful of universities in the United States to have been granted nongovernment organization (NGO) status with the United Nations (UN). In 2009, the University was granted special consultative status by the UN’s Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), making it the first university in the world to earn that rank. This status allows FDU to send delegates to international conferences and meetings, and gives students access to volunteer and internship opportunities at the UN.

Student Activities
More than 100 active student organizations and clubs, from student government to national fraternities and sororities to professional honor societies.

Housing and Special Services
On- and off-campus housing available at the Metropolitan Campus and College at Florham. Comprehensive student support includes campus health centers, academic support services, counseling offices, career services, international student services and more.

Job Placements
Among the hundreds of companies that have recruited FDU students are AT&T, Barclays Capital, Deloitte, Ernst & Young, the FBI, HSBC, IBM, ITT Space Systems, KPMG, MetLife, Micron Systems, MTV, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Prudential and Wells Fargo.
