Executive MBA in Health Systems Management
TUITION AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION
Fall 2005

There is a fixed tuition investment of $52,800* for participation in the program. This figure is inclusive of all program costs, including:

- Tuition for 48 academic credits
- All textbooks, supplementary classroom materials, and University fees
- Facility fee (including meals and refreshment breaks) at the Dolce Hamilton Park Conference Center
- Workshops and seminars
- Lodging and meals at Wroxton College in England (includes round-trip airfare)

All applications for admission must be accompanied by a $100 non-refundable processing fee (made payable to Fairleigh Dickinson University).

Depending on an employer's current policy, some students are eligible for partial or full corporate tuition support. There are also several types of financial aid available through the University, including payment plans, loans, and a variety of private, state and federal programs. Students interested in learning more about these financial assistance opportunities should contact Ms. Marty Megna, Metropolitan Campus, Enrollment Services at (201)-692-2210 for more information and assistance with these options.

Tuition subject to change
Please note that up to nine credits may be waived based on the student’s prior educational and professional experience.*