(Fairleigh Dickinson University had an eventful February. It seems outstanding that March is here already and the semester is almost over. I guess time flies when you’re having fun. February was a fun month.

We had our first Bake Sale (Hosted by SGA) consisting of some pleasurable eating. (My personal favorite was Tafadza’s muffin of love and Professor Sue Green’s Love Bite muffins.)

We also spent our first Valentine’s together, because of Megan we were able to share this special day with the Local 411 Senior’s Center, Myung Jun Choi, Filip Krol and I, were kindly given the opportunity to spend time handing out FDU-Vancouver gift bags to the elderly at their annual Valentine’s Day Party. It was a nice way to interact with the local community.)
Anyone know who the FDU-Vancouver mascot is?

FDU-Vancouver is mascot-less! FDU is currently looking for a Vancouver Mascot! Hopefully we'll come up with something timeless and creative that defines Fairleigh Dickinson University on a more intimate level. Fairleigh Dickinson University - Metropolitan Campus currently has "Nitro the Knight" who is the official FDU mascot of the Knights.

The College at Florham is the home of the "Devils". What is it that defines our home? Are we Bulldogs, Trojans, or Black Panthers? What defines us as FDU-Vancouver students?

The SGA has decided it would be fun if we all collaborated and came up with a school mascot. So, does anyone know who the FDU-Vancouver Mascot should be?!!

Give us your input at the next SGA meeting which will be held in room 136 on Tuesday at 12:00pm, or just let us know what you think when you see us in the halls.

Crochet Touché an FDU-Vancouver Dream

A new phenomenon is happening on campus. We're seeing students all over campus with crochet hooks smiling and relaxing. Is it possible they will give up their two-step for there new two-stitch habit? I think that's just wishful thinking but Crochet Touché is quickly developing into FDU-Vancouver's favorite pastime. Congratulations to Tafadzwa, who is just naturally talented, she makes it look so easy. For those of us who are unfamiliar with crocheting it is a process of creating fabric from yarn or thread using a crochet hook. The word is derived from the Middle French word croc or croche, meaning hook.

I can understand the craze. Once you start, the process is very relaxing and time seems to flow by. And the concept of creating something with your own two hands, with the intentions to give it to someone else always has a humble effect. Students who are interested are free to join in. Informal practices are held in the student lounge every Tuesday. Official practices are held on Thursday at 12:00pm.
