Certified Cheque, Bank Draft or Money Order

Tuition and fees can be paid by:

- Certified Cheque (when you certify a cheque, the bank "holds" the funds (for the amount of the cheque). This provides the recipient with a guarantee that your cheque will be paid. Any teller at your local bank branch can certify a cheque for you, provided there are sufficient funds in the account from which you want the cheque written.

- Bank Draft or Money Order, payable to “Fairleigh Dickinson University of British Columbia, Foundation. These are convenient and secure means of payment and are less vulnerable to loss or theft than cash. This is a type of check where the payment is guaranteed to be available by the issuing bank. Once it has been confirmed that sufficient funds are available, the bank effectively sets aside the funds from the account to be given out when the bank draft is used.

Bank or Wire Transfer in USD Dollars

Instructions

To send a wire payment from anywhere in the world in any currency, the remitter should provide the following information to their financial institution. Wire Transfers may be subject to additional bank fees by the receiving bank. It is the student’s responsibility to cover this fee.
