Please join us

on Tuesday, November 15th
from 2:00 – 4:00pm
in the Rutherford Room at the Rec Center

for a presentation by world renowned photojournalist

Ron Haviv

“Award-winning photojournalist Ron Haviv has produced images of conflict and humanitarian crises that have made headlines from around the world since the end of the Cold War.

Haviv is a co-founder of the photo agency VII which is dedicated to documenting conflict, both violent and non-violent, to produce an unflinching record of the injustices created and experienced by people caught up in the events they describe.

His images, which focus on raising awareness for human rights, have been published by Audubon, Business Week, Details, Fortune, Le Monde2, Newsweek, NY Times, New Yorker, Paris Match, People, Vanity Fair, Vogue, Readers Digest, Stern, Time, US News& World Report among others worldwide.”