10 Ways to GET
At Fairleigh Dickinson, you’ll find the people, programs and locations that will make your dreams come true.

1. World-Class Learning Opportunities
We are New Jersey’s largest private university with more than 12,000 graduate and undergraduate students. Our size and the scope of our academic offerings give you all the resources you’d expect from a major university — including fully accredited programs, sophisticated lab equipment, challenging honors programs, exciting faculty-student research projects and career-focused internships.

2. Personal Attention from Expert Faculty
You’ll never get lost in the crowd at FDU. Our average class size is 18–20 students and our undergraduate student/faculty ratio is a very personal 12:1. We’ve banished big lecture halls from our campuses — and we don’t use graduate assistants to instruct. More than seven out of every 10 faculty members hold a Ph.D. or highest degree in their field. They include award-winning authors, experienced business executives, accomplished artists, and noted scholars, educators and researchers.

3. The Majors You Want
Choose from our more than 100 majors and concentrations in business, education, engineering, hospitality, restaurant management, liberal arts, nursing and allied health, and the sciences — including popular programs like animation, criminology, forensic psychology, sports administration and theater. We also have accelerated bachelor’s/master’s and bachelor’s/professional degree programs (including medicine and dentistry) that can save you time and money.

4. Campuses in New Jersey, England and Canada
You probably know about our great campus locations in northern New Jersey — the College at Florham (Madison, NJ) and the Metropolitan Campus (Teaneck, NJ). But FDU also owns and operates Wroxton College in England, located on a historic country estate about 112 km from London. In 2007, we opened a campus in Vancouver (British Columbia), Canada, one of the world’s most dynamic and cosmopolitan cities.

5. A Different Way of Looking at the World
We are committed to preparing you for success in a global and changing world. That’s why we have integrated a global perspective into every class you take through programs like our Global Virtual Faculty™ and our special relationship with the United Nations. Because we are one of the most diverse universities in the United States, you’ll meet and study with students from around the world.
READY at FDU

1. Hands-On Experiences that Count
You’ll apply what you learn in the classroom to the real world through our internships and student research projects — giving you the credentials employers want. Our students often receive job offers before they graduate!

2. New York Is Your Classroom — and Playground
Our New Jersey campuses offer fast and easy access to New York City, one of the world’s great centers of commerce, culture and careers. You’ll head there for class assignments, field trips, research and internships, shopping, concerts and more.

3. See the World
Every undergraduate at FDU is encouraged to complete at least one study abroad experience — anywhere in the world you choose. We even have our own international campuses in Wroxton, England, and Vancouver, British Columbia. You can also opt for short-term classes taught by FDU faculty in countries around the globe.

Life at FDU
Weather: Enjoy a four season climate. During the summer months (June to September), temperatures in the region can reach 35° Celsius. In the winter months (December to March), temperatures can drop below 0° Celsius.

Living Arrangements: FDU offers a variety of on-campus housing accommodations at both New Jersey campuses. Undergraduate and graduate students may live either in a University residence hall or make arrangements to live in the local community.

Food: FDU works closely with students to provide a wide variety of on-campus dining options to accommodate different dietary requirements, including vegetarian. Additionally, the local communities have numerous restaurants and grocery shops that offer different international cuisines.

International Student Services: The Office of International Student Services plays an important part in helping international students adjust to student life in the United States. Among the services provided are:
- Airport pick-up (fall and spring semesters)
- Orientation programs each semester
- Immigration counseling
- Trips, tours, special activities and social events

Rankings
- The University is ranked 13th in international student enrollment among master’s-level institutions across the country by Open Doors, a report published annually by the Institute of International Education.
- FDU is ranked by U.S. News & World Report as a Tier 1 Top School in the category of Master’s Universities in the Northeast.
- The University is recognized by U.S. News & World Report as having one of the Best Undergraduate Engineering programs and one of the Best Undergraduate Business programs in the U.S.
- The Silberman College of Business is ranked as one of the “Best 294 Business Schools” by The Princeton Review.
- The University’s International School of Hospitality and Tourism Management is ranked 4th in the U.S. by TheBestSchools.org.

The ELS Center and Conditional Admission
Students who are unable to meet the University’s minimum English proficiency requirement may apply for the intensive English program offered by ELS. Conditional admission is offered for all undergraduate and select graduate programs. To apply for conditional admission, students must submit an FDU application with all required credentials and an ELS application directly to ELS. For more information and an ELS application, visit the ELS website at www.ELS.edu or email the Metropolitan Campus ELS center at tea@ELS.edu.

Both of our U.S. campuses offer students easy access to the resources of New York City while providing safe, suburban environments. The campus distances from New York City are 16 km (Metropolitan Campus) and 56 km (College at Florham).
Students applying for an F-1 or J-1 visa must submit:

- Proof of English proficiency:
  - TOEFL: 79 IBT, 213 CBT or 550 PBT or
  - IELTS: 6.0 overall band or
  - Pearson’s PTE-A: 53 or
  - SAT (first-time undergraduate freshmen only): Critical Reading score 420 or higher

- Academic credentials with English translation
- Two (2) letters of recommendation

The following credentials also must be provided:

First-Time Undergraduate Freshmen
- School leaving certificates, diplomas, national exam results and secondary school transcripts
- SAT/ACT scores (Required only to be considered for a Col. Fairleigh S. Dickinson Scholarship. Not required for admission to the University)

Undergraduate Transfer Students
- Official transcripts from current university along with copy of secondary school marks
- WES evaluation of foreign university transcripts

Graduate Students

Welcome to the College at Florham

Madison, NJ
2,419 Undergraduate Students
611 Graduate Students

The Florham Campus
The College at Florham is an innovative place to learn. With undergraduates at the heart of everything that happens here, you’ll be immersed in a 24/7 living and learning environment.
You may not want to leave our dynamic, bustling campus, but there’s plenty to do just beyond our college grounds. We are part of a true “college town” community, located near several other institutions of higher education. The nearby towns of Florham Park, Madison and Morristown are filled with cafés, bookstores, movie theaters and more — and New York City is just 45 minutes away by the train that runs through campus.

Academics at Florham
The College at Florham combines academic excellence and hands-on learning experiences to create a unique collegiate environment. Our programs in business and the liberal arts stress personal attention and strong student/faculty interaction, collaborative research and partnerships with local businesses and community groups.

Campus Life at Florham
The College at Florham is a residential campus, with nearly 90 percent of all freshmen living on campus. That means an active campus life with plenty to do every day of the week — like our popular “Hot Topics” series that brings faculty and students together with experts to explore current trends and news events, semi-formals in the Hennessy Hall Ballroom and fall football games.
First-year students live together in The Twomblies, where the Academic Support Center is open day and night to give you help with writing, study tips and even tutoring in a tough subject.

Welcome to Wroxton College
Located 112 km from London, the University’s Wroxton College is housed in a fully modernized Jacobean mansion on 50 acres of lawns, lakes and woodlands. Wroxton College provides students with a high quality academic program and the opportunity to travel and experience new cultures. Stratford-upon-Avon, Oxford, London and Birmingham are close by and easily accessible, giving students an outstanding selection of theaters, concert halls, museums, galleries, restaurants and major shopping areas. Students can choose to spend either a semester or summer at Wroxton for their study abroad experience.

United Nations Collaboration

Fairleigh Dickinson has been associated with the United Nations since its inception in 1945. This unique relationship with the U.N. gives faculty and students access to a wealth of facilities, programs and resources, including regular on-campus presentations and special briefings for FDU students.

In January 2009, the University was granted special consultative status by the U.N.’s Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). FDU is the first comprehensive university in the world to earn that rank, joining more than 2,000 international organizations including groups such as Amnesty International and Habitat for Humanity. Special consultative status allows FDU to send delegates to international conferences and meetings, and gives students access to volunteer and internship opportunities.

In 2002, together with the Ambassador’s Club of the United Nations, the University established the U.N. Pathways Lecture Series in which ambassadors regularly present programs at FDU.

* One-year (summer start date only) and two-year (fall start date only) accelerated programs leading to the B.S.N. are available to applicants who already hold a bachelor’s degree. Prerequisites are required.

 Offered in partnership with the Valley Hospital in Ridgewood, NJ. Interested students must complete both a Fairleigh Dickinson University application for admission and a Valley Hospital application (available at www.valleyhealth.com/school).

▲ Admission to this program is not usually granted to international students due to New Jersey certification policies.

★ This accelerated format, leading to an M.B.A., allows students to earn their degree in 15 months (or one year if they qualify for advanced standing). The program has a required internship and 10-day study abroad visit.
