The Vagina Monologues by Eve Ensler

Co-sponsored by the Multi-Cultural Council, the Office of Student Life, and the University Players

This production is a V-Day event. V-Day, a non-profit corporation, distributes funds to grassroots, national and international organizations and programs that work to stop violence against women and girls. In 2001, V-Day was named one of Worth Magazine's “100 Best Charities,” and in 2006 one of Marie Claire Magazine's Top Ten Charities.

In ten years, the V-Day movement has raised over $70 million.

One Performance Only!
Tuesday, March 2 - 8:00 PM - Wilson Auditorium
Tickets: $5 FDU Community; $10 General Public
Tickets are available at the SUB Information Booth or at the Door.

Featuring:
Melissa Dilger, Victoria S. Flinn, Shiomara Gonzalez, Sasha Palin, Marsha Russo, Olivia Thomas, Kandy K. Turner, Kathleen West, Ran Xia

Producer: Kathleen West
Stage Manager: Victoria S. Flinn
Director: Ellen Spaldo

All proceeds benefit Shelter Our Sisters – Hackensack, NJ and The City of Joy - Bukavu, Congo

Shelter Our Sisters assists women and children who are victims of domestic violence, including emotional, economic, sexual and physical abuse. The agency provides emergency and transitional housing, emotional support, and a continuum of services focused on safety, empowerment, and self-sufficiency.

The City of Joy is a project of V-Day and UNICEF, in partnership with Panzi Foundation. It is a special facility being built for the survivors of sexual violence in Bukavu, Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC). The City of Joy will help women to heal and will provide them with opportunities to develop their leadership through programming in: group therapy; storytelling; dance; theater; self-defense; comprehensive sexuality education (covering HIV/AIDS, family planning); ecology and horticulture; and economic empowerment.