Summer Study-Abroad in England
June 26–July 5

Literacy Topics
Offered by Center for Dyslexia Studies at Fairleigh Dickinson University, Wroxton College, Oxfordshire, England

Overview of children's literature, grades 1 to 8. Guidelines for choosing children’s literature for students with dyslexia. Overview of British regular and special-education systems in Great Britain, including placement and intervention for students with dyslexia.

Course Instructors include FDU faculty Barbara McAuliffe and Judy Shapiro along with three British educators.

Course approved for 24 IMSLEC (International Multisensory Structured Language Education Council) CE Credit. Available for FDU Graduate Credit for extra cost.

Cost approximately $2,500 includes
- roundtrip air fare
- airport transfers
- room and board
- fee for 24 CE units
- daytrips to Nationally-acclaimed Special Education School, Royal Shakespeare Theatre, Oxford, Cotswold English Countryside, London